KEICHNER DE LES OUT BULLETS IN NORMANDY

Another RIAer who participated in the initial landings on the Normandy beaches was Capt. Charles L. Kelchner, on military furlough from RIA's Management Division. In a V-Nail letter to the Roll Call, Charlie says: "Ny entire company participated in the preliminary operations on the coast of Normandy. We handled and supervised the handling of large quantities of amounition in initial beach dumps and in the present large Amounition Depot where we are now working.

"Things have cooled off considerably for us; nevertholess, that slit trench is always handy.

"I visited Cherbourg the other day - - - not bad! Montbourg and Valognes are really in ruins." Charlie's address is 618th Ord. A. M. Co., APO 230, c/o Postmaster New York City.

·CACCY IDE - CAPTAIN IDE -- CNE AND THE SAME

Two big things have recently happened to Herbert Ide. First, he became the daddy of Janet Eileen Ide. Second, he was promoted from 1st Lieutenant to Captain. Writing from Patterson Field, Ohio, Herb says: "I've been wishing myself back in England especially since the invasion began. But a transfer in the Army is usually for the convenience of the Army and not the soldier. . . . How about some mail from some of my buddies in Co-op Operations?" (HQASC, Dox 801, Patterson Field, Ohio.)

KNOWLES IS BACK FROM ANOTHER JALINT

Another tale of adventure has been received from Lou Knowles, RTA's lone representative in the Maritime Service, and a worthy rival of Durton Holmes because of his almost endless globe-trotting.

This time Lou has just come back from another convoy trip to England. The only sad part of the whole journey came when his ship had to weigh anchor at Sydney, Nove Scotia, just two hours before a dance that had been arranged by the local contingent of Wallis.

"In Manchester, I saw the Delle Vue Gardens, which contains an excellent zoo; however, many of the animals had been removed. I got a glimpse of the Coronation Dall-room and visited the amusement park which is just like the Highlands in St. Louis.

"The English are great lovers of vaudeville (so that's where it went!) and I saw several interesting shows. At one theatre, I was late in finding my seat and the comedian cracked a couple of jokes at my expense."

Lou's back in Bangor, waiting for his next assignment. Oh yes, the cargo on the last trip was T. N. T.

IT'S TOUGH ENOUGH

for Uncle San to run his Post-Offive these days and the Roll Call doesn't want to make it tougher. So, if the address on the front of the envelope that brings you this issue of the Roll Call is incorrect, please take the time to drep us a card with your correct military address so we can keep our records up to date and, at the same time, give Uncle a helping hand.

Our address is 840 Boatmens Dank Building, St. Louis 2, Missouri. Thanks!!

COLUMN WRITE

Cliff Kurth is in complete charge of the V-Nail Station in New Guinea. . Druce Watkins, on a little island in the Pacific, goes to the main base every two weeks. The opportunities there, he says, are: 1) go, to the bar 2) go to the show 3) sleep all day. . "Sammy" has a Hall of Fame in his office. Pictures of 13 of the 26 Tech Standardites in uniform are hanging on the wall. He's waiting for the other 13 to send theirs in. . . Zelda Krinowitz has been transferred from Santa Honica to Stlantic City. . Wilbert Clark reports three difficulties in France: 1) no women 2) he can't speak French 3)"the boys play too rough." On his first pight over there he had to run a goat out of his fox-hole so he could get some sleep. Clest la guerre. . . . Ernic Rushner is on a Pacific atoll. Says he "There's a portable Diesel here that must have been stolen from some needy co-op!" . . . George Scherrer was on hand at Princeton recently when Secretary Forrestal got his honorary Ll.D. . . . Walter Wolffrhas been on the staff of five successive companding officers at Camp Sutton, II. C. He's post adjutant there now. The Army Signal Corps sent us his photo. . . . Julius Strojny is the latest to leave Tech Standards for the Army. . . . Glenn O. Rendall is Radar Maintenance Officer at the Alliance (Neb.) Army Air Base, One night, at a bingo game, he ran into Frank Ledbotter, another RIAer. Frank was later transferred to Halden, Ho. . . . Aside from too much mud and mosquitoes, Hew Guinea is satisfactory to Will Lewis. . . . Norma Lewis, WAC, dropped in today. . . . Houston Lay says that he is being groomed for possible duty as a C. O. on one of the (unmentionable) Mavy ships. He's down in Little Creek, Va., now. Edith Johnson is doing conhissary work for the Coast Guard in Seaside Heights, N. J. Recently saw brother-in-law George Ball, also REA. George told her that he had bunged into Bob Weber. It's a small you-know-what. . . . If Harry Fein and Al Gerber read these lines, let this be fair warning: they both have the same APO number (7953) and hence should be somewhere in each other's vicinity. . . . Jim Oberheltzer and several other Lieutenants have been sent up to General Electric in Schenectady to supervise the preparation and publishing of technical manuals on some new equipmer the company is making. . . . Tom (Smiles) Roman's mother sent us his address and we sent the three Roll Calls that the Post Office had returned. Now if we would only hear from Robin Lett. He's got six waiting for him . . . Violet O'Heill, now in RIA's Associate Solicitor's Office, has a hero bother. Seens that a 500 lb. bomb failed to drop from a comrade's plane while both were flying over France. It dangled precariously. Lt. Bob O'Neill eased his wing under the other plane until it knocked the bomb loose. The bomb started rolling along O'Neill's wing. Quickly, he dipped the wing and the bomb then plunged into enemy territory. . . . San Finkelstein writes from Italy that the Italian farmers have electricity on their farms and like it very much. San has seen the Rock of Gibraltar, It. Aetna, It. Vesuvius, the Isle of Capri and other land-marks . . . Jim Deatty is in a South Carolina Navy Yard and Ken Darry is in Sardinia . . A long low bow to Darrell Johnson for those nice complinents on the R. C. . . . Art Frank writes from the Pacific area that things aren't so easy as when he was stationed in Hawaii. Art has been kept on the move for a long time. Every letter he writes carries a new address . . AMATEUR CARTOONISTS!!!!!! SEND US YOUR CARTOONS. ANY SIZE. ANY SUDJECT. WE'LL REPRODUCE 'EM IN THE ROLL CALL.
